VIOLINIST ZINA SCHIFF IN RECITAL: MUSIC PLAYED IN TEREZIN

Monday, May 15, 7:30pm
Underwriters & VIP Reception, 6:00pm

Zina Schiff, a Heifetz prodigy, will play a program modeled after recitals in Terezin (Theresienstadt) with selections from the classics and Jewish composers. Schiff has received rave reviews as soloist with major orchestras in Eastern Europe, Israel and America. Among her recital venues are London's Wigmore Hall, New York's Carnegie Hall and Moscow's Tchaikovsky Conservatory. Her expressive playing was selected by Maurice Jarre for his soundtrack on the MGM movie The Fixer. Two of her ten acclaimed CDs are with the Israel Philharmonic and she has a trilogy of CDs devoted to Jewish music.

"Zina Schiff is a remarkable violinist with a huge range of color and nuance." —American Record Guide.

Mary Barranger, staff pianist of the San Diego Symphony Orchestra will accompany.

VARIAN FRY ASSIGNMENT: RESCUE

May 15–June 4

Varian Fry Assignment: Rescue, a traveling exhibit from the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, depicts the work of Varian Fry, the first American honored by Yad Vashem as Righteous Among the Nations. A Harvard graduate working as an editor, Fry had managed to save 2,000 political and intellectual refugees from Nazi-controlled Vichy France, including Max Ernst, Gustav Mahler's wife Alma, Hannah Arendt and Marc Chagall.

FATHOM: THE BODY AS UNIVERSE Partner's Celebration Performance

Thursday, May 18 @ the Stephen and Mary Birch North Park Theatre

FATHOM: The Body As Universe is a collaboration bridging the disciplines of dance, visual art and music. Blending ancient Buddhist and Jewish beliefs, FATHOM expresses the mystical language of the universe as spoken through the microcosm of the human body. Created by choreographer John Malashock (San Diego), Japanese-born artist Junko Chodos, and Israeli composer Ariel Blumenthal.

Additional performances of Malashock Dance Company's FATHOM will be presented at the Stephen and Mary Birch North Park Theatre, and at the Japanese American Cultural Center in Los Angeles.

CELEBRATING SHOSTAKOVICH - PIANO AND VOICE

Wednesday, May 24, 7:30pm

Dmitri Shostakovich, the great 20th century Soviet composer, felt a kinship and solidarity with the Jews. Although not Jewish himself, he wrote a stunning song cycle for three singers and piano using Russian translations of Jewish folk poems. From Jewish Folk Poetry, op. 79 will be performed with the original Yiddish poems as reset by Israeli musicologist Joachim Braun. To appreciate Shostakovich's Jewish music inspiration, the program will open with a bouquet of Yiddish folk songs accompanied by accordion. A Piano Trio in memory of Shostakovich by the Odessa-born Israeli composer Joseph Dorfman concludes the program.

DANNY MASENG: WASTING TIME WITH HARRY DAVIDOWITZ

Saturday, May 27, 8:00pm

There are great singers,
There are gifted teachers,
There are master storytellers,
There are inspired speakers;
Once in a generation they all come together in one person...

— DANNY MASENG

Master storyteller, singer, composer and classical guitarist, Danny Maseng takes you along on his odyssey from Jerusalem to Eilat, from Hassidic Rebbe's Shteible to Zen Monastery, in the musical rendition of his fascinating search for spiritual fulfillment. One unforgettable evening of drama and song.

An intergenerational family story told thru music.
