Grand Cantorial Shabbat

With Cantor Stephen Leas and The London Jewish Male Choir

Founded in 1926, The London Jewish Male Choir is known world wide for its exceptional performances of Jewish music – Cantorial, Yiddish, Ladino, Israeli, Chassidic, Broadway and Opera. Maestro Michael Etherton became the choir's Musical Director in January of 2004 after several years of study at the Jerusalem Rubin Academy of Music under the great Maestro Mendi Rodan.

Stephen Leas

Cantor Stephen Leas is the choir's Resident Cantor and lead soloist. Steven is the Cantor of the Central Synagogue in London and sings with the St. Johns Wood Synagogue's Neimah Choir on tour.

Join us for this very special Shabbat and historical moment for our synagogue. It is a rare opportunity to experience a London Shabbat Service in our shul in Palm Beach.

Grand Cantorial Shabbat

With Cantor Joseph Malovany and The Moscow Jewish Choir

The beautiful 20 voices of The Moscow Jewish Male Choir with Master Cantor Joseph Malovany from New York's prestigious Fifth Avenue Synagogue will participate throughout our Shabbat services.

Cantor Malovany has been the Cantor of the Fifth Avenue Synagogue in New York since 1973. He is today one the premier Cantors of this generation. He is widely known and referred to as "New York City's Cantor." Cantor Malovany is the President of the World Jewish Music Foundation, a Distinguished Professor of Liturgical Music at The Belz School of the Yeshiva University where the Joseph Malovany Chair for Advanced Studies in Jewish Liturgical Music was established in his honor.

Maestro Alexander Tsaliuk is the Director and Conductor of the Moscow Jewish Male Choir which is quickly and deservedly establishing itself as one of the world's finest male choirs. Cantor Malovany and Maestro Tsaliuk have known each other since the very beginning of the choir and over the years have performed in many concerts together throughout the world. Join us for this very exciting and beautiful Shabbat Concert in Prayer Weekend.
